TG3: students in vulnerable situation* living in EMMA-APU countries

Fields of study (the programme open to all fields):
(01) Agricultural Sciences; (02) Architecture, Urban and Regional Planning; (03) Art and Design; (04) Business Studies and Management Sciences; (05) Education, Teacher Training; (06) Engineering, Technology; (07) Geography, Geology; (08) Humanities; (09) Languages; (10) Law, (11) Mathematics, Informatics, (12) Medical Sciences, (13) Natural Sciences, (14) Social Sciences, (15) Communication and Information Sciences.

Exchange students: your home university agrees with the host university (through a Learning Agreement) that the teaching programme you will receive abroad replace a part of your home programme and will be recognized, if it is successful, as such for your home diploma. Bachelor: 6 or 10 months; Master: 6 or 11 months; Doctorate: 10 months.

Degree seeking students: you will be enrolled in the host University for a complete programme and will get your diploma from the host University. Bachelor: 34 months (only for TG3 students); Master: 22 months; Doctorate: 34 months.

Full support means all expenses for visa, travel, insurance, tuition in the EMMA-EPU and a scholarship or a grant for living expenses, depending on the level of the individual mobility flow.

EMMA means “Erasmus Mundus Mobility with Asia”. It is a programme run by the EMMA consortium (26 universities for both Emma-East and West), fully supported by the European Commission under the supervision of the Erasmus Mundus Action 2, run by EACEA.

* You have a refugee status or are an asylum beneficiary, you have been the object of unjustified expulsion, you belong to a population targeted by a specific national policy.
