

DCGE faculties visited Yildiz Technical University, Istanbul, Turkey

Department of Civil and Geomatics Engineering (DCGE) faculties Mr. Uma Shankar Panday and Mr. Shangharsha Thapa visited Department of Geomatic Engineering, Faculty of Civil Engineering, Yildiz Technical University, Istanbul, Turkey under Erasmus+ staff mobility program for teaching. During their stay at Yildiz Technical University (YTU) from 9th to 13th October 2017, Mr. Panday gave lecture to academic staffs, graduate and undergraduate students of the department on “Recent UAV activities at the Department of Civil and Geomatics Engineering, Kathmandu University” while Mr. Thapa presented on “Survey Procedures in Nepal”.

Mr. Panday giving lecture at Department of Geomatics Engineering, YTU

Academic staffs, graduate and undergraduate students attending the lecture

Furthermore, they had discussions with academic staffs of the Department of Geomatics Engineering, YTU on further possibilities of cooperation in teaching and research activities.

Discussion with Department of Geomatics Engineering, YTU

Mr. Thapa (left) receiving Token of Love from Associate Prof. Dr. Fusun Balik Şanlı of YTU

The Erasmus+ program has been quite instrumental in connecting Department of Civil and Geomatics Engineering with various European universities for the past few years.